Jih-mei-ho-fu (Zhyrnakhov), a member of the head offices of the Federation of Labor Unions of the USSR, Moscow, and a representative of that office to the head office of the Chinese Communist Federation of Labor Unions, Peiping, conveyed to LIU Shao-ch'i in Peiping, the Soviet Government's request for a total of 40,000 Chinese laborers to be sent as soon as possible from China to the Kuibyshev industrial center and Hsuehyuan (雪原) coal mining center in the USSR. As a result of this request the Chinese Communist authorities are attempting to assemble, in the Peiping area, the requested number of suspected counter-revolutionary and reactionary elements for shipment as laborers to Kuibyshev and Hsuehyuan.
